

Australia Travel and Learn Privacy Policy

Australia Travel and Learn (ATL) is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal information. This privacy policy outlines how we collect, use, disclose, and manage your personal information in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) contained in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act).

Collection of Personal Information

ATL may collect personal information from you in a variety of ways, including when you make a booking with us, communicate with us, or use our website. The personal information we collect may include your name, contact details, travel plans, and payment information.

Purpose of Collection

The personal information we collect is used for the purpose of providing our services to you, including processing your bookings and answering your queries. We may also use your personal information for internal purposes, such as improving our website and services, or to comply with legal requirements.

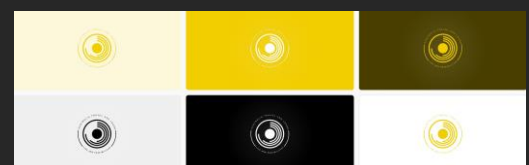

Disclosure of Personal Information

ATL may disclose your personal information to third-party service providers for the purpose of providing our services to you, such as travel suppliers, payment providers, and booking agents. We may also disclose your personal information to government agencies and other organizations as required by law.

Security of Personal Information

ATL takes the protection of your personal information seriously and has implemented appropriate security measures to protect it from unauthorized access, use, disclosure, or destruction.

Access to Personal Information

Australia Travel and Learn Privacy Policy

You have the right to request access to your personal information held by ATL and to have any inaccuracies corrected. If you wish to access your personal information, please contact us using the details provided below.

Changes to Privacy Policy

ATL may make changes to this privacy policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on our website and will become effective from the date of publication.
